

ACTIVITIES FOR SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN

Note: This is a sample list and does not constitute endorsement of businesses offering free resources. There are many more activities and resources available online. Explore on your own and connect with parent and educator groups online for recommendations. This information is courtesy of [informingfamilies.org]

Daily Schedule and Activity Ideas

Many families are just starting to find out that their children will be out of school for the next 4-6 weeks, and are coming to the realization that in order to maintain continuity they will need to implement a structured schedule. This sample schedule has been made free for download to help you create a schedule and activities tailored to your child's interests and needs.

Lunch Doodles with Mo Willems

You might be isolated, but you're not alone. You are an art maker. Let's make some together. I'll see you at 1pm ET weekdays for LUNCH DOODLES and I hope you'll keep making art even after my visit!

PBS Kids

Get daily activities and tips to help kids play and learn at home.

Scholastic Learn at Home: Day-by-day projects to keep kids reading, thinking, and growing

Every day includes four separate learning experiences, each built around a thrilling, meaningful story or video. Kids can do them on their own, with their families, or with their teachers. Just find your grade level and let the learning begin!

School Closure Toolkit

This toolkit includes visual supports for children with autism to use during the COVID-19 school closures. Created by Easterseals Illinois Autism Partnership.

The Sped Guru: Special Education Websites for Students and Parents

Top websites for children with learning disabilities that can be utilized at home and school.