This is a labor-intensive process that will take some time. If you have been unsuccessful in getting through to set your appointment, please be patient. Please keep calling.

When is it Your Turn to Get the COVID-19 Vaccine?

The COVID-19 vaccine is here in Washington and it brings the hope of a pandemic-free future. The vaccine is one of the best strategies we have now to protect ourselves and our loved ones from the virus that defined 2020. Eventually every adult and teen in Washington who wants the vaccine will be able to get one this year, but, for now, there is a limited supply. Read more about the vaccine roll out here.

Washington's New Vaccine Dashboard Will Offer New Window into Progress.

The Washington State Department of Health (DOH), in partnership with Microsoft AI for Health, is proud to announce vaccine data is now available on our dashboard, an addition that will help us share progress being made statewide as we endeavor to get COVID-19 vaccine to millions of people across the state of Washington.

The dashboard now includes a high-level vaccination snapshot under the Current Status tab as well as a new Vaccinations tab with statewide and county-level data on where, when and how many people are getting vaccinated. In the new tab, you can view the number of doses given in each county and statewide in a map view or by date. Read the full news release here.

Moving to the Next Phase: Vaccine Expansion Plan Meant to Accelerate the Pace of Vaccinations Statewide

The Washington State Department of Health (DOH) announced Monday the state is moving into Phase 1B tier 1, expanding access to COVID-19 vaccine to thousands more people per week. As of January 16, DOH has given almost 294,386 doses of vaccine, which is 42.3% of the 696,075 total doses of vaccines delivered to Washington state.

Is it Time to Get the COVID-19 Vaccine? Information from the Federal VA, TRICARE, and Dept of Health

For veterans enrolled in VA health care, the VA is now offering vaccines to these 2 groups:

- Veterans living in long-term care facilities, and
- VA health care personnel. Vaccinating VA health care personnel helps the VA continue providing care for Veterans.

After these first 2 groups, the VA will begin to offer vaccines to more Veterans who are at high risk of severe illness from COVID-19. If you're eligible to get a vaccine, your VA health care team will contact you. You don't need to reserve a vaccine or come to a VA facility to request or receive a vaccine until we contact you.
