More Drive through COVID-19 Testing Scheduled

South Bend, WA. - Two more dates for drive through COVID-19 testing have been added. On Wednesday April 15th there will be a drive through testing site in South Bend. On Thursday April 16th a second drive through testing will be conducted in Long Beach.

Drive through testing priority expanded in Pacific County. Priority groups now include those who are symptomatic AND in one of the following groups:

Symptomatic pregnant women

Symptomatic individuals who are Immune compromised

Symptomatic individuals who are over age 65

This is in addition to previously prioritized groups which include:

Symptomatic Healthcare employees (Includes all staff, such as kitchen staff, maintenance, etc., who work in healthcare facilities including long term care and assisted facilities. This also includes home health care workers).

Symptomatic Public Safety workers (Includes law enforcement, corrections officers, fire fighters and EMS workers).

Symptomatic Pharmacy and Grocery Store workers.

Other symptomatic employees who work in business that serve the public.
